

Ouch! I am sad to know that K-Love may be taken off the air to make way for one of the new LPFM stations! K-Love is THE ONLY station I listen to anymore. Its call sign, "positive and encouraging", couldn't explain any better what the station does for me, and likely, countless numbers of other listeners. The contemporary Christian music just puts Jesus in my heart, and causes me to think before I do anything, "What Would Jesus Do?". It has encouraged me to become more active in my church and in my community, and that has a positive affect on everyone with whom I come in contact. Now, multiply that by the number of listeners in San Antonio, across the state, and across the nation. I truly have to believe that our cities, our states, and our nation are better for it. But I think the most exciting thing about K-Love is that many of my sons' friends have switched their radio listening choice to K-Love. In a world saturated by a decrease in morals and values, I find hope in this younger generation, and feel that however we can encourage them to follow Christ's ways is vital. K-Love is one of those ways. Why would anyone want that kind of an impact to be eradicated? Please give thoughtful consideration before deciding to expand the LPFM service in a way that would allow those stations to put K-Love off the air! Thank you. God Bless.
